9. [REDACTED] Picked up from Colonel Scott Smith, in the office of Senator Stuart Symington, material we had previously provided on a Laotian prison breakout. Smith said he had brought this to the Senator's attention. He also said he had queried the Senator as to whether he desired anything further from the Agency and the Senator replied in the negative.

11. [REDACTED] Talked at some length with Representative John O. Marsh concerning his recent active duty tour in Vietnam. Marsh is a National Guard officer and Army Reserve Major. He is very sensitive about certain aspects of his tour in Vietnam but would very much enjoy a talk with knowledgeable Agency people after he is debriefed by the Army which he anticipates will be accomplished within the next week. He will be in touch with us further then.

12. [REDACTED] John Talmadge, in the office of Representative John Dellenback (R., Ore.), called indicating the Congressman was having dinner on 22 February with a member of the Embassy of Ghana. The Congressman would like a general briefing on Ghana prior to that time. It was agreed with Talmadge that I would be back in touch on about 15 February to set this up.
